

Emerald Cove Resort

Where to stay and play on the Colorado River

LOCATION: Earp, California

RESORT TYPE: Coast Deluxe

SEASON: Year-round

There's no better place to have wet-and-wild family adventures than Emerald Cove Resort, a popular Coast Deluxe property that's part of the Colorado River Adventures network.

Situated on the California–Arizona border on the shores of the Colorado River, Emerald Cove is the region's epicenter for watery fun, with a mile-long stretch of beach, a triple-wide boat launch and nearby wa-

WEBSITE: coloradoriveradventures.com

WOODALL FACILITIES:

WOODALL RECREATION:

wash in the laundry rooms. Then grab your sticks and tee up on the nine-hole par-three golf course or play 18 holes of mini-golf.

The well-supervised River Ratz Kids Club hosts activities just for youth. During summer evenings, Emerald Cove really rocks with evening karaoke and street dances.

Pets get their day in the sun at two fenced-in dog areas on the property.

The resort's gated entrance and 24-hour security make it easy to come and go. A casino on the Arizona side awaits just across the river by boat or 6 miles away by car. And a short drive up the Colorado takes you to Lake Havasu City and the original London Bridge.

Is it any wonder that Emerald Cove Resort earned five out of a possible five Diamond-W's in Recreation from Woodall's? Take it from an online reviewer on the Good Sam Club's website: "Love this place."

