

HOLIDAY PARK RESORT

You dream of a delicious dinner at a posh Italian restaurant but don't want to leave the resort. You're in luck when you stay at Holiday Park Resort in Kelowna, British Columbia. Lock up your rig and walk to the onsite award-winning restaurant, Ricardo's Mediterranean Kitchen.

Founded in 1993 on the shores of the Okanagan Valley's Duck Lake, Holiday Park Resort's reputation has grown and visitors have come from 26 countries, every U.S. state and every Canadian province. And there's good reason people visit over and over again. You have the option of staying at a condominium unit or one of the fully serviced and landscaped sites.

Recreational options include a heated outdoor pool and outdoor hot tub, family activity area with billiards and games, and adult and children's craft shop. Try your hand at shuffleboard and horseshoes, rent a bike or canoe, shoot hoops or play tennis. Walking paths are the perfect way to get exercise while bird watching and adding to your life list. One of the best ways to make friends at Holiday Park Resort is to join one of the many events scheduled by the full-time activities director.

If you need more exercise, take an aqua-size class, go line dancing or participate in Zumba. Check out one of the nearby 30 public golf courses after warming up on the resort's six-hole golf course. In winter, go ice skating, cross-country skiing or head to one of the ski slopes within an hour's drive. The nearby town of Kelowna is seriously bicycle friendly with more than 149 miles of bicycle lanes on city streets, greenspace bike paths, and mountain biking trails.

It grew from an empty field to a fabulous vacation destination
