

INDIAN COVE RESORT

There’s water, water everywhere—the Atlantic Ocean and several bays

Although Virginia Beach, Virginia, is the most populous city in Virginia, don’t worry. You’ll find a lovely respite from the hustle and bustle when parking your rig at Indian Cove Resort. Of course that doesn’t mean that you have to just sit in your lawn chair all day.

According to visitor Deana Williams from Chesterfield, Virginia, “I love this place! Stuff for everyone to do and the people are just wonderful.” Do you need a stronger endorsement?

In addition to plenty of on-site amenities, the activities schedule will keep you busy catching up with old friends and meeting new ones. Choose from theme weeks like Mexican Fiesta, Luau Week, Redneck Week, Decades Week, or Big Top Carnival. Bingo every Sunday, monthly yard sales, raffles, water aerobics, chili cook-offs, wine tasting events, cornhole tournaments, site crawls, and lots of entertainment fill the activity schedule.

Bring your fishing gear and traverse a freshwater channel that leads to Back Bay, a wildlife refuge. Catch largemouth bass, speckled perch and channel cat. Head east and enjoy the sun and sand on the Atlantic Ocean. Virginia Beach is home to two distinct sets of beaches: the city beaches at the oceanfront and the beaches at the mouth of Chesapeake Bay.

If you love lighthouses, visit Cape Henry Memorial Park and climb to the top of the oldest government-built lighthouse in America. Although it may not sound appealing, visit Mount Trashmore, built on a landfill that was turned into one of the city’s most popular parks. Activities include a man-made mountain, two lakes, two playgrounds, a skate park, and plenty of walking paths.
