

WILDERNESS RESORT

A wilderness retreat with plenty of amenities

Seeing is believing. Click on the Wilderness Resort website and take a virtual tour of the rustic retreat set in the deep woods near Omer, Michigan. The tour is so extensive, you may be ready to choose a prime location for your next visit. If you want to get in touch with nature, this is your place.

Wilderness Resort has something for everyone. The quiet, peaceful atmosphere is just the right prescription for anyone who wants to do nothing but relax and soak in the ambiance of the wooded resort. It's also a perfect home base for sportsmen and sportswomen with fishing and hunting areas nearby. Bring your binoculars and life list because the region is popular with many species of birds including bald eagles, buntings, kitiwakes, goshawk, kestrel, and woodpeckers. Townline Creek in Omer is considered a top location for bird watching in Michigan.

Of course, you don't need to leave the resort at all. Meet new friends and greet old ones in the adult lounge and pavilion or around the community fire pit. Pack a picnic lunch and meet at the picnic area or in the outdoor heated pool and hot tub. Do laundry or pick up forgotten essentials at the general store. Play basketball, horseshoes, shuffleboard, badminton, and volleyball. Nearby attractions include shopping, golfing, fun parks, and a flea market.

The resort's activities director makes sure that everyone has an opportunity to join one of the many theme weeks throughout the season. These include Cartoon Week, NASCAR, Pirate, Minute to Win It, Hawaiian, and Survivor.

Leave your rig behind or invite family and friends to join you by renting one of the many rental units including cabinettes and park models.
