

NORTH CAROLINA CAMP HATTERAS RESORT

Camp Hatteras, where family camping is a tradition

You don't have to travel with kids, but it's a plus when you hook up at Camp Hatteras Resort in Waves, North Carolina. So load up your kids and / or grandchildren and head east to Hatteras Island in the Outer Banks of North Carolina. Surrounded by two bodies of water—the Pamlico Sound and the Atlantic Ocean—it's perfect for anyone who loves sun, sand, and the sea.

"Our guests also enjoy the convenience of being able to walk to the beach," says General Manager Jeanette Straight.

You don't have to travel with your pets, but if you do, Camp Hatteras Resort has a new Bark Park.

"Everybody is excited about the dog park," says Straight. "We've gotten an unbelievable response."

And for you and your family there are numerous planned activities during the summer months. There's also miniature golf, tennis, basketball, three pools, a Jacuzzi, and a large game room. The pools include an indoor heated pool, outdoor pool and kiddie pool. Bring your fishing gear and try your luck at the fishing ponds. Take advantage of the marina with water sports rentals. A playground area features a climbing center and swing set, horseshoes, and shuffleboard.

Of course, the resort is also perfect for those who prefer to sit back and relax and enjoy the sound of the ocean from their own site.

The resort sits on 50 acres with oceanfront and sound-front accommodations, with access to the beach and the Pamlico Sound. Enjoy full hook-up sites with concrete pad and patio, cable TV, and Wi-Fi. And you'll be close to a bath house and laundry facilities—all in all five bath houses and four laundry facilities.
