

HIDEAWAY PONDS RECREATIONAL RESORT

Hideaway Ponds Recreational Resort is the real deal when it comes to experiencing “All things Cajun”

If you’ve ever imagined how it might be to spend some time in Cajun country—Cajun food, Cajun music, and a friendly Cajun atmosphere—then you’ve been imagining Hideaway Ponds Recreational Resort in Gibson, Louisiana.

“You can experience the Cajun culture nowhere else in the United States but right in this area,” says Owner La Wanda LaCoste. “We are the friendliest people in the nation and, if you like dancing, we dance at the drop of a hat.”

In addition to the Cajun atmosphere, within 70 miles of New Orleans, enjoy a relaxing visit at the beautiful resort. Try your hand at catching crawfish in what LaCoste believes may be the only crawfish pond in any resort in the nation. Call them crawfish, crawdads, or mud bugs, but no matter what you call them, in no time, using a dozen set nets, you can catch your fill. Drop a line in one of the other two ponds stocked with catfish, bass, and perch or take a paddleboat ride.

But if you’ve fished all you can eat, there are plenty of other activities to keep you involved at the Louisiana resort. In fact, there’s a full-time activities director to help you fill every minute. Or you can just “set a spell” beside one of three pools: indoor, outdoor and kiddie pool, relax in the indoor Jacuzzi, or lounge in the 4,000-square-foot air-conditioned clubhouse. Enjoy shuffleboard, volleyball, billiards, ping pong, playground, and mini-golf. Your well-appointed RV site includes 50/30/20-amp electrical service, sewage and water, cable TV and Wi-Fi, cement patio pad, picnic table and barbecue pit.

Check the resort’s website to plan your visit during special activities. If you’re lucky, you may catch a Necole the Mermaid show.
