

RIDGEVIEW RV RESORT

Stay one night or one week — you may never want to leave Ridgeview RV Resort

To say Ridgeview RV Resort in Bullhead City, Arizona, has a great location is an understatement. In fact, within a short drive from the resort you can be in California or Nevada or enjoy water sports on two pristine lakes or a world-famous river. Ridgeview RV Resort is also one of a dozen great destinations owned by Sunrise Resorts located from Alaska to Arizona.

“Visitors to our resort love the proximity to Laughlin, Nevada,” says Owner Matt Marotzke. “We have a fantastic view of the casino lights at night. We’re also close to the Colorado River and Lake Mohave.”

Once you pull your rig into the resort and find your spacious RV lot, you can enjoy a number of outstanding amenities including the clubhouse, swimming pool, and Jacuzzi. Enjoy hanging out at your site or hike one of the many trails, play shuffleboard, or meet friends in the picnic area. With 360 days a year of sunshine, no matter what you choose, you’ll be met with sunny blue skies.

In less than a mile, you can play in the Colorado River. Enjoy boating, water and jet skiing, fishing, or take a refreshing dip in the brisk water. Walk alongside the river on the Heritage Greenway Trail located in Laughlin/Bullhead City where you can observe waterfowl that flock to its shores. Also in and around the city, you’ll have an opportunity to use those golf clubs you’ve been luging around.

In addition to great shopping and fine dining in Laughlin, Nevada, 11 major resorts and casinos offer exciting adult entertainment.

RESORT TYPE
Coast Premier

LOCATION
Bullhead City, Arizona

SEASON
Year-Round

WEBSITE
sunriseresorts.com

