

SAGINAW BAY RESORT AND CAMPGROUND

Come for the ice cream, but stay for the beauty at Saginaw Bay Resort

A satellite view of Saginaw Bay Resort in Standish, Michigan, will get you longing for one of the beautiful RV sites at the resort located in northern Michigan. You don't have to choose to park in a spacious site amidst beautiful shade trees, but why wouldn't you? There are also many non-shade spaces. Of course, if you're traveling without your rig or have company, rent one of the resort cabins.

Once settled, take out your camp chairs and set a spell or tour the resort. You'll find a general store, a Snack Shack, and an Ice Cream Shop. If you're hungry, choose from their menu of hot dogs, hamburgers, and top that off with ice cream: cones, sundaes, or floats.

There's plenty to see and do including hiking trails, playground, putt-putt golf course, basketball court, horseshoes, badminton, and volleyball. Indoor and outdoor heated pools and hot tub means there's swimming for all seasons. Inside activities include an adult lounge, clubhouse and pavilion, and game room.

"Plan your visit in August and get in on the Fishing Frenzy, which is a contest for both kids and adults on Lil Sag Bay Lake," says Deanna Campbell, communications director. "You can fish, you can swim, you can kayak, and you can float."

If you prefer to add more activity to your daily schedule, check out the extensive list of theme days. These include Summer Fun, Down on the Farm, Out of This World, Safari, Independence, Mardi Gras, Hawaiian, Mexican Fiesta, Carnival, and Magic/Vegas.

At Saginaw Bay Resort, you're only minutes from golf courses, marinas, beaches, factory outlet shopping, and Eagles Landing Casino.
