

TRAVEL INN RESORT

This is Washington State camping at its best

Washington State is known for its gorgeous Pacific Ocean coastline and breathtaking mountains, and Travel Inn Resort is strategically located at the gateway to ocean and mountain recreation—30 minutes from coastal beaches.

In addition to the proximity to the ocean, Travel Inn Resort in Elma, Washington, is located near several rivers and streams that have salmon, steelhead, and trout. Surrounding forests are abundant with birds, deer, and elk.

Onsite, in addition to spacious campsites with 30 and 50 amp electric and cable TV, there are many opportunities to try your hand at a variety of sports. These include horseshoes, basketball, shuffleboard, volleyball, and badminton. Relax at the community fire pit, have an outdoor meal at the picnic area, or lounge at the outdoor swimming pool. Meet old and new friends at the resort’s clubhouse and stay in touch with faraway friends via Wi-Fi.

“My wife and I just returned from the Travel Inn Resort and we had the best time,” wrote Guy Cambone, USAF retired in a testimonial. “What a wonderful group of people that are running the resort. Everything is well maintained and kept. You feel at home right from check-in because everyone goes above and beyond any expectations. Plus, their pig roast was outstanding.”

Travel Inn Resort, part of the K/M Resorts family, was the first resort purchased by Douglas James McLeod, the founder. The K/M in the name happens to be the first initials of his children’s names: Kevin, Kraig, Kelli, and Michael. It’s truly a family affair. Travel Inn was the first resort purchased in 1987. Since then, seven more lovely parks have been added: Ocean Mist, Diamond Point, Old American, Columbia Shores, Maple Grove, Ponderosa Falls, and Ocean Breeze. K/M Resorts continues to be a family-owned and managed business.
