

BROWNSVILLE WINTER HAVEN RESORT

An ideal location for both RVers and birders

The Rio Grande Valley, where Brownsville Winter Haven Resort is located, is a top birding destination and migratory flyway between North and South America. More than 500 species of birds and 300 species of butterflies migrate through the Rio Grande Valley. The native and migratory species create opportunities for all watchers to add to their life-list of birds viewed. The Resaca de la Palma State Park, located in Brownsville, boasts the largest tract of native habitat in the World Birding Center network.

You may not be a birder, but you're definitely an RVer who enjoys the comfort and beauty of a well situated and amenity-filled resort. Welcome to Brownsville Winter Haven Resort in Brownsville, Texas, nestled among towering majestic palm trees with meandering resaca waterways. The resort is located where two cultures meet to create a unique land of exotic sounds, flavor, history, and natural beauty. Close by is the Gulf of Mexico with its emerald surf, glistening sand beaches, and bountiful marine life.

But you don't have to leave the comfort of the resort because it's jam-packed with amenities and activities. Once you pass the 24-hour gate host, notice the beautiful landscaping and places that are perfect for bicycling and walking. Pull your rig into a pull-through site with cement pads and full hookups.

Enjoy three heated swimming pools and heated therapeutic spa. Get exercise on the bocce ball courts, lighted shuffleboard courts, lighted tennis courts, and golf chipping range. The clubhouse has arts and crafts, card, and game facilities. The lending library includes books, magazines, videos, DVDs, and jigsaw puzzles. When you have a chance, try your luck fishing in one of the stocked fishing resacas.

For great fishing, visit South Padre Island and Port Isabel on the Gulf of Mexico. The Gladys Porter Zoo is an oasis nestled in the center of Brownsville with 26 acres of lush plantings and 1,600 animals.
