

STYX RIVER RESORT

Set up your site with easy access to Gulf of Mexico beaches

After a long day of driving, it's a breath of fresh air to find a resort that's easy to get to. Styx River Resort in Robertsdale, Alabama, is right off Interstate 10 between Mobile, Alabama and Pensacola, Florida. It's the place to kick up your feet and bask in the peaceful sounds, clean air, and comfort of natural surroundings.

While parked at your spacious pull-through site, you may choose to relax at the site or take advantage of the many activities dotted throughout the property. Cool off in the indoor and / or outdoor pool. Grab a snack at the restaurant. Let your kids get the wiggles out at the playground and recreation room. Send your teens to the Teen Center. Challenge a neighbor to a game on one of the game courts or take a walk or run on the nature trails. Rent a tube and take a float on the Styx River. Relax in the large clubhouse and enjoy the Wi-Fi.

You don't have to, but you'll be glad you joined one of the many planned activities, which include pot lucks, ice cream socials, bingo nights, and flea markets.

Styx River Resort's management excels at hosting group events. Contact the staff if you're planning a family reunion, office party, or wedding event. There are also beautiful rental cabins.

Off site, visit nearby Mobile's Battleship Park, home to the USS Alabama which fought in World War II and was decommissioned in 1947. Visitors can tour decks of the battleship or go into the USS Drum, a World War II era submarine.

If you're visiting Styx River Resort in late winter, check out Mardi Gras in Mobile. It's family friendly, so you can bring the kids along with you. Full of music and lots of fun, you can't go wrong with the parade. You may not know that Mobile is the birthplace of America's original Mardi Gras. Mardi Gras originated in 1703 and then was revived after the Civil War when citizen Joe Cain, fed up with post-war misery, led an impromptu parade down city streets. Mardi Gras celebrations begin two and a half weeks before Fat Tuesday and the Port City comes to life.

RESORT TYPE
Coast Classic

LOCATION
Robertsdale, Alabama

SEASON
Year-Round

WEBSITE
styxriverrvpark.com

