
Camperworld – Pleasant Creek Ranch

MOUNT PLEASANT, UTAH

Surrounded by some of the most breathtaking scenery in the state, this 25-acre resort has a commanding view of the rugged mountains and overlooks a picturesque valley.

There are so many scenic roads, parks and recreational areas in this corner of the country, you'll wonder what to see and do first. A good start would be the Nebo Loop Scenic Byway that climbs through the Wasatch Forest. This area is spectacularly scenic, with natural splendor around every bend. Be inspired.

If you're lucky enough to be there at the right time, you could take in one of the local events such as the Ute Stampede Rodeo in Nephi (July), Pioneer Day in Provo (July) or the Old Capital Arts Festival at Territorial Statehouse State Park (September). Don't fret if you don't hit the timing just right, though. There's always plenty to do and see.

Camperworld–Pleasant Creek Ranch has plenty going on, so you might decide to park your rig and stay put. Enjoy the clubhouse, the heated outdoor swimming pool, a playground, a picnic area, an arcade room, horseshoe pits, and basketball and volleybal courts.

Pleasant Creek offers 72 full-hookup and 12 partial-hookup campsites, with a maximum RV length of 48 feet. The resort is open from April 15 to October 15.

Crisp, clear mountain air, the kind you find at an elevation of 6,800 feet, fosters a sense of well-being and a desire to get involved in outdoor activities. That's what you'll feel at Camperworld–Pleasant Creek in the foothills of Utah's La Sal Mountains.
